TONIGHT

NCJS Meeting – Monday, May 22, 2017

"Managing a Career Transition"
Speaker: Gary Szelagowski

Gary Szelagowski knows what it is like to go through a long job search. Drawing on his personal as well as professional experience, he will present a way of going through job transition that addresses more than just resumes and interviews. Gary will encourage job seekers to "feed your soul," manage time and priorities, and find a workable "rhythm." Networking is essential, of course, and Gary will offer a unique way of tending to your job search network.

Gary Szelagowski is a seasoned HR professional who has delivered game-changing results as a subject matter expert, as well as in generalist roles supporting business line clients.

Between 2010 and 2012, Gary managed a protracted job search at the height of the great recession. He learned the value of networking, perseverance and working a plan, while keeping a positive attitude and remaining flexible.

PLAN AHEAD – FOLLOWING MEETING

NCJS Meeting – Monday, June 12, 2017

Networking and Job Search "Joys & Concerns"

Join with other NCJS members and leaders for constructive networking, job search troubleshooting, sharing what's going well and what is not, and collaborating on job leads.

Networking is part of "Job Search 101," yet many job seekers lack the actual network of "people with connections" during a time of job transition. Networking is one of the cornerstones of North Coast Job Seekers and we are very intentional about providing faceto-face time to explore connections, be introduced to new contacts, discover new opportunities, and share the people resources that YOU have to help another job seeker. Join with other NCJS members for this face-to-face time of constructive networking, job leads, and issue sharing
