

PLEASE CONSIDER

Yes, I heard it again last week. It is always hard to hear. It goes something like this: "I'm a believer. I made my peace with God. I pray. I don't go to church." Likely, you have heard the same. Sad. Questions to those who say such:

1. How do you answer this verse? "...not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near." Heb. 10:25. Even in the newly formed church there were people staying home. We would be encouraged if you were here!
2. To the church at Ephesus: "But I have this against you, that you have abandoned your first love." Rev. 2:4. Could that be you too? 'First' here means priority in life. What would be your priority?
3. When you need someone to help you with weddings, funerals, prayers or any kind of help, who will you call? Those you worship with each Lord's Day would know of the need and be glad to help you!
4. If you say you love your wife/husband, then would you go home to them just once or twice a year? We think not.
5. The early church was a located church. Meaning, each church had a location where they would meet each Lord's Day. For instance, the church in Corinth was such a place. It is God's intent that we meet together. What does your conscience say?
6. The Lord's church "devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers." "And who believed were together and had all things in common." Acts 2:42 & 44. Don't you miss this worship and fellowship time? Communion?
7. Paul writes in I Cor. 12:12-31 that the church has many members and that each performs a function for God's family. Each member cares for the other. Is this something you are missing?

God is truly the ever watchful loving Father! We are watching for you too!

God Bless, Brethren.

God's Word for the Week

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

John 21:15-17. ESV
