God's Word For The Week

"Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask." "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked. They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory." "You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?" "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared." When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:35-45)

WELCOME

WE WELCOME OUR VISITORS TO THE WORSHIP SERVICES TODAY AS OUR HONORED GUESTS. PLEASE FILL OUT A VISITORS CARD AND GIVE IT TO ONE OF THE GREETERS AT THE DOOR AS YOU LEAVE. WE HOPE & PRAY YOU WILL RETURN SOON.

Let's Be Prayer Warriors

We received a letter from Potters Children's Home about prayer requests received from kids of all ages who are residents at Potters. I just thought that sharing the data in this letter might give all of us insight into the role that prayer ought to play in our daily lives as Christians. You are welcome to use these requests in your daily prayer times.

Please pray that Jennifer can learn from the unknown and gain patience. She says she is currently struggling with understanding. Max also asks for you to pray for his sisters and brother. He asks for prayers for the dogs and cats in the animal shelters and for the homeless. Christa asks for you prayers because her teacher is sick and her hair is falling out. Graysea asks for prayers for her dad to stop using drugs. Lee asks that you pray for wisdom for our staff as we make daily decisions that have such an impact on our residents.

Then there is Samantha who asks us to pray for mothers in the SPARK program and the difficulty they face in transitions. Zoey asks for prayers for her dad to make better choices. Sophie asks for prayers for her grandmother who just learned that she has breast cancer. Jackie asks that we pray for her health to improve and for all the residents on campus.

Then there is Kevin who wants us to pray for Potters as a unit so that the work here touches the lives of the folks we serve. Hunter asks that you help him make good decisions at work, school. and home. Geneva asks that we pray for everyone to learn about God. Then there is JT who asks for prayers that he will be better about turning in his assignments this year in school. Tonya asks that we pray that the children in Chris and Tonya's home will feel loved by them as well as by God and that they can overcome the circumstances of their past as they look towards a better future. She asks for prayers for them as parents and for their family as they adjust to Bowling Green.

The above requests for prayer are only a few from Potters Children's Home because I suspect that there are many more that were not mentioned. Just consider what we here at East Broad Street would and should ask one another to pray for us? Why not begin a list today of how you need to grow in Christ and ask other Christians to pray for you that it might be so.

Shalom, Harold
