God’s Word For The Week

“For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit, through whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison who disobeyed long ago when

God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water, and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.” (1 Peter 3:18-22)

What Do We Long For?

Quick. Name the top three accomplishments of Grover Cleveland's presidency. I'll wait. Nothing? Don't feel bad or unpatriotic. He's not in most historians' top 10 or top 25 of American presidents. However 132 years ago, he was President and dedicated the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor. If you don't recall, it was the proposed gift of French historian Edouard de Laboulaye in honor of America's alliance with France during the Revolutionary War. It was sculpted by Frederic-Auguste Bartholdi, and designed by Viollet-le-Duc and Alexandre-Gustave Eiffel (yes, he also designed the Eiffel Tower.) It was completed in France in 1884, and delivered to America the next year with the last rivet fitted on October 28, 1886. The pedestal of the statue contains a sonnet by poet Emma Lazarus, that reads,

"Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me.
I lift my lamp beside the golden door"

With all the present debate about immigration, there is no denying why so many people around the world want to come to the United States. We have long been regarded as the haven for poor masses yearning to breathe free and wanting a home inside "the golden door." Many have come and achieved incredible success in our country. Many more have come to find that immigrating here did not solve their problems or make their dreams come true.

For many people there is a great longing for something more than prosperity or success or victory. Jesus teaches us that material things won't last in Matthew 6:19-20. Peter tells us what comes because of this attitude. (2 Pet. 3:10). There is a longing of the soul which is greater than the freedoms afforded by nations and governments.

The most noble longing of the soul is for the freedom only Christ can provide. To be free from the slavery of sin (John 8:31-36), from guilt of sin (Psalms. 51:1-14), and from the power of sin (Heb. 2:14) is the wisest quest. A person with an abundance of money, liberty, and other earthly advantages may still be buried by the influence of sin. There is a solution right no! Who wouldn't want that? Don't forget what Jesus tells people everywhere: "Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest" (Mat. 11:28). That message is for us as much as it was for the people who heard His invitation in the first century. Shalom, Harold
