God's Word For The Week

"What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torture me!" For Jesus had commanded the evil spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places. Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" "Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. And they begged him repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss. The people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed man had been cured. Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left. The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return home and tell how much God has done for you." So the man went away and told all over town how much Jesus had done for him." (Luke 8:28b-31;35-39)

Is God Surprised?

If you find yourself confused, shocked, or scared by what is going on around you, then spend as much time as you can reading about it as well as considering its principles and the results

“O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.

You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.

You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.

Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD.

You hem me in—behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.”

(Psalms 139:1-6)

God knows why things happen as they do. He is not shocked by evil or caught off guard by goodness. God is not dazed when we choose Him or fail to trust and follow Him.

If we need a little more convincing that God is engaged in what is going on in our lives and the rest of the world, then read the rest of Psalm 139. It will increase our faith because God knows what He is doing. He is with us through all that has happened, is happening and will happen. God is not surprised by anything! Most important of all God will not abandon us for a moment because He is with us every step of our earthly journey.

I suggest this week that you read Romans 8:32-29 & Hebrews 13:5-6 because they proclaim the truth that our Heavenly King knows everything before it happens and always has! Why not trust Him?

Shalom, Harold
