Sometimes preachers are misunderstood:

The story is told of a young man who had begun the many tasks of preaching, and in his first sermon he emphasized over and over that “The commentators did not agree with me” on this or that. The next Sunday, a kindly old lady came in lugging a heavy bag. She took it down the to the front of the building and deposited it near the pulpit, and explained:

“Young man, I heard you complain’ last Sunday that common taters don’t agree with you; so, I brought you some sweet taters to try.”

“Because of the Lord’s great love we are consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” Lamentations 3:22-23.
