

Wollaston Garden Club Meeting Minutes

December 16, 2021

Co-President Kathy Ceurvels called the meeting to order at 12:20 p.m.

She asked us all to have a moment of community for Elaine McGrail, Anita Fasano and Claire Currier who are all ill and who would appreciate us keeping them in our thoughts and sending them a card.

Kathy thanked our hostess, Rosemary Gilbody, who coordinated our delicious spread and Ruth Griffin who made the beautiful table arrangement and Jo Costello who made all the stunning table arrangements. All of the floral items were part of the Opportunity Drawing for which all members received a free ticket. A special thanks also went out to the bakers: Maria Holster, Meg Potter, Kathy Ceurvels, Ann McDonagh and Rosemary Gilbody.

Greens Sale Report-Emily and Pam thanked everyone who worked and contributed to the great success of the Greens Sale especially Susan Lynch and Cynthia Lewis for their designs and extra efforts.

President Ceurvels announced that our January and February meetings will both be on Zoom due to possible weather issues and COVID. We hope to resume in-person meetings in March.

There were no committee reports.

Kathy went over the rules of the Yankee Swap and introduced our Master Gardener, Carol Fischer, who gave a brief overview of each of the plants and their preferred conditions and care.

The meeting adjourned at 1:25 p.m.
