Who We Are

College Planning Corp. (CPC) is the world's leading educational consultancy with over 15 years of admissions and financial aid experience.

With College Planning Corp, many students gain admission to and attend top schools including Harvard, Princeton, MIT, and Stanford.

Having directly spoken to admissions officers at Ivy League schools, we know what they are looking for in your application, essays, and extracurriculars.

More importantly, CPC. gives an actionable framework you can use to build the most compelling application that's unique to you.

CPC's firm also specializes in maximizing college financial aid and developing your admissions process and content.

Our reputable admissions team is professionally trained and includes former admissions committee members from Ivy League universities.

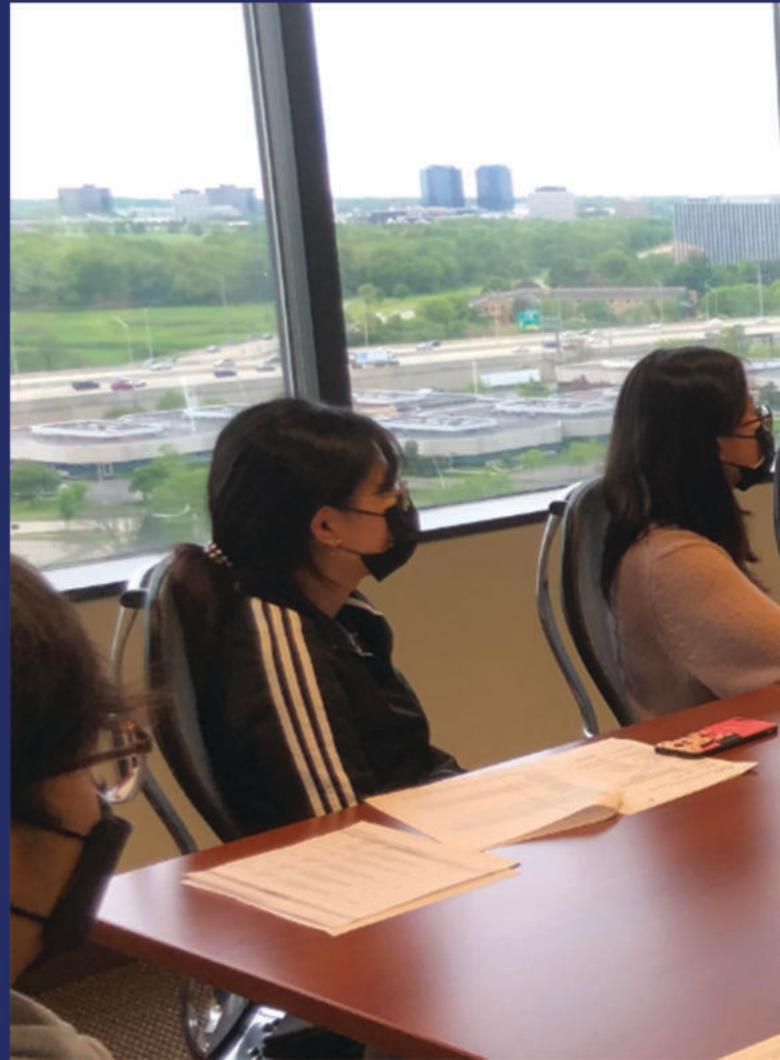

Early Planning for the BIG Picture is smart

CPC is here to be your guide in mastering the admissions game.

CPC accounts for all of your resources to decide what the most beneficial strategies are in reducing a family's educational expenses.

We also take a comprehensive look at a family's situation and how it can affect the ability to qualify for aid.

We save families thousands off their education costs annually.

The results are often dramatic!
We save families thousands off their education costs annually.

“University of Indiana Bloomington classified me as an out-of-state student, but CPC got them to recognize me as in-state, saving me literally tens of thousands of dollars!”

Edward Kim, IU Bloomington '26

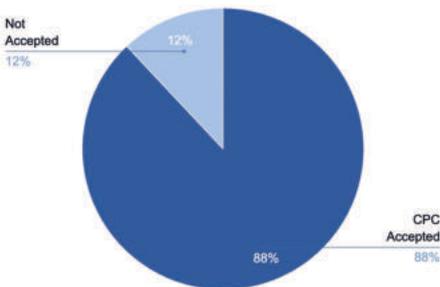

Statistics

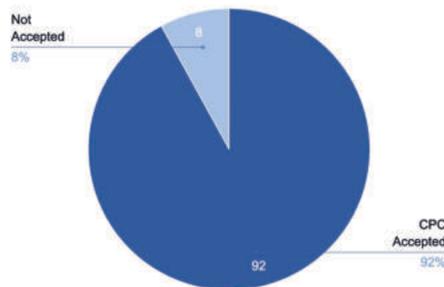

CPC Prep. has long been a leader in helping college and graduate school bound students achieve their higher education goals through our test preparation services, tutoring and admissions resources, as well as through summer classes and online courses and resources.

We deliver our programs via a network of nationwide teachers and tutors in the U.S., Canada, and Korean and Chinese international franchises. We also partner with schools and guidance counselors wherever there is need to help provide students with college readiness, test preparation, and career planning services.

Medical School Prep Study Hall

Customizes Professional Consulting for Admission to Medical School

We are lucky to employ several medical doctors and residents. They have personally completed this challenging process. Together with a real current or former med student, you will review the MCAT test for medical school admissions. Furthermore, receive essay assistance from professional published writers. Avoid the cliched mistakes many med school applicants make.

You will get access to all of AAMC's official review material for no additional charge. Study for as long as you need with experts in chemistry, biology, CARS, medicine, and A & P.

“Tutoring started as a way to boost my resume during med school, but I loved it so much that I still do it on the side after I graduated. I was in the GPPA, which is a program that guarantees admission to med school, the earlier you start, the easier it is for us to guarantee you admission to one of your top choices.”

- Dr. Lindsay Karson

“I couldn't have done it without you!! Whenever I lost confidence in myself, you have been the one encouraging me and pushing me through!”

- Madeline, accepted to University of Michigan Medical School '28

“I pushed and pushed myself so hard to get a 516 on the MCAT. This was a huge improvement for me, but I thought that was going to be the end of my dream. I needed a 520 for the top schools and I couldn't do it. Nevertheless, with guidance from CPC I was still able to get into UCLA, which was my top choice!”

- Jiwon, UCLA '28

Dental School Prep Study Hall

www.studyhallus.com/dental-school

Customizes Professional Consulting for Admission to Dental School

More interested in dental science? We have current dental students from top schools on call as well.

“I could not believe I achieved this. The hours spent practicing for interviews endowed me with the confidence I needed to defeat my imposter syndrome and accept that I really was destined to achieve my dreams. Thank you CPC for all the help!”

- Christian, accepted to Michigan, Columbia, U Penn, and to every dental school she applied to.

Law School Study Hall

Do you have a gift for gab and a strong moral compass?
Perhaps you see yourself as an attorney in the future?
We have current law students like Satafe and Nick who both attend Northwestern at the top of their class. Master the infamous LSAT admissions test. Review for months all of LSAC’s official material with our top-scorers. Gain feedback and insight into their admissions process.

“Naturally, law school is very expensive so I wanted to make some money tutoring. But I found out that I just love hearing the excitement in the students' voices when they reach that big milestone on their SAT score. Everything about law school is designed to be very competitive, so you’d be wise to get us on your team.”

- Nick, teacher

Getting into top colleges like Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Stanford, MIT, University of Chicago, and more is a goal for many high school students and parents.

The admissions process, however, often creates confusion because of inefficient collegiate advice from under qualified individuals with no real experience.

That is why CPC aims to help guide students and parents to make informed decisions for their respective passions.
