Justice Is Done!

(1 Kings 3:16-28)

Two women came to King Solomon arguing over one baby. One said, "My son is alive, yours is dead." The second woman said the same thing.

Solomon knew how to find the truth! He told his servants to bring a sword. Then he said, "Cut the child in two. Give half to one woman and half to the other."

The woman who loved her child said, "Please, give her the living child. Don't kill him!" But the other woman said, "Cut him in two!"

The king replied, "Give the child to the first woman. Don't kill him. She is his mother."

People were amazed at Solomon's wisdom!

For the Parents

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Today, your child heard about the wisdom of King Solomon in settling a serious argument between two women over one baby. When reviewing the lesson with your child, let your child see you asking God for wisdom. Emphasize the importance of going to God in prayer before you act or speak. You may also demonstrate asking God how you may best connect with your child to show how much you love him or her.
