Justice Is Done!

Lesson Scripture: 1 Kings 3:16-28

Key Verse:

When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice. (1 Kings 3:28)

Justice Is Done!

(1 Kings 3:16-28)

Two women argued that one baby boy was their son. King Solomon listened to their argument. Then he ordered that the baby be cut in half!

One of the women said, "No, don't kill him!" But the other woman said, "Cut him in two!" King Solomon then knew who the real mother was. It was the woman who did not want the baby to be harmed. She loved him.

King Solomon decided not to kill the baby. He gave the baby to the woman who showed concern and love for the baby. People were amazed by King Solomon's wisdom from God!

For the Parents

Dear Parents/Guardians,

In today's lesson, your child heard about an argument brought before King Solomon. Each of two women declared that she was the mother of one baby boy. King Solomon—full of wisdom from God—determined who the real mother was. King Solomon made things right for the mother of the child. Review the story with your child, encouraging him or her to make wise choices that please God. Tell your child to ask God for wisdom when making a choice.
