City Lights Art Gallery is honored to have George Ameal Wilson among its exhibiting artists. The greatest portion of Ameal's (his grandmother's name with which he signs his work) large body of work is dedicated to broadening our understanding of American history with respect to the post-Civil War era by depicting the presence and contributions of people of color, often misrepresented or forgotten, in the unfolding story of the American West. From Chinese prospectors in mid-19th century gold country to African-American cattle wranglers on the trail to market, Ameal's paintings and pastel drawings are vibrant with character, warmth and historical significance.

A Meet the Artist reception will be held at the Gallery on Saturday, September 8th, from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm. Everyone, Gallery members and the general public are encouraged to take this opportunity to say hello to this remarkable artist and view his extraordinary work.

With warm regards,

Cat Schelling
