The '30' is enclosed within a circular border composed of small gold dots. The E.Reed Report: May 2023

I just wanted to say Happy Mother's Day, May 14, 2023, to all the mothers in Lake County.

Mothers are special beings who truly love unconditionally, through thick and thin, jail or triumph they are there supporting with words of encouragement and some times simply through prayers.

I think about a very short poem written by Robert Louis Stevenson who lived in the mid to late 1800's. He penned a tribute to his mother, that while only four lines long, summarizes the faith that our mothers have in us, and the memories that they have of us from childhood's hour.

To My Mother

You too, my mother, read my rhymes
For love of unforgotten times,
And you may chance to hear once more
The little feet along the floor.

By Robert Louis Stevenson - 1850-1894

On The Table, Breakfast and Conversation

The Soaring Eagle Community Development Corp presented their second in a series of “On The Table Dinner and Conversation” events on April 22, 2023 at their headquarters in Waukegan.

“The conversation was lively, unscripted, and informative,” says Pamela Shadell. “I thought that it was great!”

Community influencers who were in attendance discussed several subjects including the prevalence and impact of childhood adverse experiences and how various organizations were working in the community to minimize negative childhood adverse experiences through their organization’s programming.

Each person had the opportunity to share insights as to what was important to them as it relates to helping the community.

Community Influencers attending were as follows: Dr. Willis Thomas, Corporate Executive and DEI Influencer; Rebecca Thomas, Social Service Administrator; Jeff McBride, Waukegan Public School Board Member; Glenda Duncan, Juneteenth Commission President and Illinois Sunrise Beach Rotary Club President-elect; Craig Neal, Waukegan Deputy Chief of Police; Marvin Burrus, President Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, State Senator Adriane Johnson, Pamela Shadell, Retired Abbott Labs Executive, Elroy Reed, Executive Director - Soaring Eagle Community Dev. Gearldean Hughes Celebrates 90th Birthday

In February of 2019, Gearldean Hughes was presented with the 2019 Most Influential African American of Lake County Lifetime Achievement Award. Then, she was 86, today, April 15, 2023 Gearldean is 90 years of age and is celebrating her birthday with her friends and family.

As a surprise, and special treat, her only surviving and baby brother, Jimmy Fisher, 71, flew in from Pine Bluff, Arkansas to help celebrate.

“I enjoyed everything,” says Gearldean. “It was a shock to see my brother, I had been talking to him all along on the phone, and I didn’t know that he had flown in to be here.”

Gearldean was born in Elaine,

Arkansas in 1933. She gave birth to nine children and has 28 grandchildren and 44 great-grandchildren.

When asked if there was one thing that she could go back and do all over again, Gearldean says that she can’t think of a thing. But she recalls a period of time as a child when she went to stay with an Aunt in Pine Bluff, Compared to rural Elaine, Pine Bluff was the city and she loved working life with her cousin and going to school and getting all A’s.

“As long as I was there with my Auntie and Cousin, I got straight A’s. It was just amazing. I wanted to go to college and become a psychiatrist,” Ms. Hughes reflects.

“Then my mother came and got me and I had to go back to picking cotton and chopping cotton until I was 19 and then I came to live in Illinois.”

In Illinois, she stayed with Queen Ester Young and Essie Geater, relatives, and there she began a new life.

Gearldean worked at St. Therese Hospital in North Chicago while raising a family in Waukegan. She has also worked at the several other hospitals in the region.

As part of her civic engagement, Gearldean served as the Chairman of the Board of the PST, Inc. not-for-profit a Housing and Community Development Corporation for about six years. She directed the membership drive and was a faithful member of the Lake County NAACP for many years.

Gearldean is a member of the Shiloh Baptist church, joining in 1952 about 70 years ago. She served as an usher and trainer for ushers for the National Baptist Convention and the regional Church of God In Christ usher boards.

Gearldean says that she first became an usher at the age of 15 where she joined the St. Johns Baptist Church in Wabash Arkansas. She has been serving as an usher ever since.

Gearlean cherishes her family and

Hughes received a resolution from the Lake County Board recognizing her contributions to the community. It was presented by Lake County Commissioner Mary Ross Cunningham.

believes that we are put on earth to help each other. As we closed out our interview with Ms. Hughes, she quoted the late great Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr by saying,

“If I can help somebody as I pass along, If I can cheer somebody with a word or song, If I can show somebody that he is traveling wrong, then my living will not be in vain.”

Whitney Houston: I Wanna Dance With Somebody

Movie Review

This movie.....This movie has awkward written all over it. I did not like the trailers, so I did not see it in the theater. I incidentally ran across it the other night as it premiered on Netflix as the number one film of the week. I took my seat, took out my pad and began to critique.

First of all, I loved Whitney Houston. I purchased her first Album and watched her soar and fail, this movie, while it captured the essence of her life, had potential, but it's cobbled patchwork of a directing job jerked the viewer around like a back seat rider on rough terrain. Yes, you were on the bus, in the vehicle, and at some points due to the overpowering songs, even enjoyed portions of the ride. However, the directing made you feel like you were on the stage with her, a heartbeat away, but looking at an imposter who you wanted to reluctantly dance with.

For me, the biggest flaw in the movie was the casting. They should have cast someone who actually looked like Whitney Houston. Naomi Ackie was flexible enough, lip sung her heart out, but never convinced anyone that she was the superstar that she was portraying. It's kind of like Angela Bassett who portrayed Tina Turner in "What's Love Got To Do With It". By the time that the movie was over, you thought that Angela was Tina Turner to the point that when the actual Tina Turner showed her face, at the end, you said naw, I want Angela Bassett back. The same goes for Aston Sanders who played Bobby Brown. It appears that the only things that they had in common were gaps in their teeth.

The music carried this film. The story, which was quite revealing, unveiled things that I did not know that were sort of disturbing. An example would be the tumultuous relationship between her mother Sissy Houston and her father, and the relationship between her father and her as a business manager. By the way these two characters (Sissy and John Russell Houston) were poorly cast as well. I truly wanted to like this film, but after reflecting upon it, I just can't. As someone else has said, Whitney deserved a better telling of her story, good, bad and the ugly.

I left not liking Whitney as much as I wanted, and she was the heroine. I see why it flopped in the theaters as well as flopped in pay per view. Let's let a few more years go by and try and do this again. With all of her faults, ups and downs, she deserves a better telling of her story than this.

I will end by sharing that Whitney sang a song, "Didn't We Almost Have It All", that song was biopic and prophetic. Whitney did have it all, but didn't know it.

Facts About Whitney Houston

1. Whitney Elizabeth Houston was born on August 9, 1963.
2. She died at the age of 48 of an accidental drowning.
3. She is youngest of three siblings and has two older brothers Gary and Michael. Her parents got divorced when she was four.
4. She's musical aristocracy: her second cousin is Dionne Warwick; her godmother is Aretha Franklin.
5. Her self-titled 1985 debut album (Whitney Houston) is her best selling album and the ballad "Saving All My Love for You" was her first #1 hit single in both the US and the UK. She scored a further two hits off this album, "Greatest Love of All" and "How Will I Know".
6. Whitney Houston, to date, has sold more #1 hits than any other female African American artist.
7. Whitney's rendition of Dolly Parton's song, "I Will Always Love You" is the best-selling single of all time by a female solo artist selling over 20 million copies.

If Jesus Came To Your House

by Lois Blanchard Eades

If Jesus came to your house to spend a day or two -
 If He came unexpectedly, I wonder what you'd do.
 Oh, I know you'd give your nicest room to such an honored Guest,
 And all the food you'd serve to Him would be the very best,
 And you would keep assuring Him you're glad to have him there -
 That serving Him in your own home is joy beyond compare.

But when you saw Him coming, would you meet Him at the door
 With arms outstretched in welcome to your heavenly Visitor?
 Or would you have to change your clothes before you let Him in?
 Or hide some magazines and put the Bible where they'd been?
 Would you turn off the radio and hope He hadn't heard?
 And wish you hadn't uttered that last, loud, hasty word?

Would you hide your worldly music
 and put some hymn books out?

Could you let Jesus walk right in, or would you rush about?
 And I wonder - if the Savior spent a day or two with you,
 Would you go right on doing the things you always do?
 Would you go right on saying the things you always say?
 Would life for you continue as it does from day to day?

Would your family conversation keep up it's usual pace?
 And would you find it hard each meal to say a table grace?
 Would you sing the songs you always sing,
 and read the books you read,

And let Him know the things on which your mind and spirit feed?
 Would you take Jesus with you everywhere you'd planned to go?
 Or would you, maybe, change your plans for just a day or so?

Would you be glad to have Him meet your very closest friends?
 Or would you hope they'd stay away until His visit ends?
 Would you be glad to have Him stay forever on and on?
 Or would you sigh with great relief when He at last was gone?
 It might be interesting to know the things that you would do
 If Jesus Christ in person came to spend some time with you.
